

Military to Maritime Career Information Day

June 4th 1300 to 1700

As part of our commitment to working with service members, we invite current and former military personnel to join representatives from some of Jacksonville's and Florida's largest maritime companies along with union and other industry representatives for an educational afternoon on the maritime industry and how military members can transition into it.

Activities Include:

- An information session;
- A tour of a tugboat and chance to ask questions of the crew;
- An opportunity to speak with maritime industry shore side personnel.

Your Company Can Be Part of the Military- to-Maritime Career Information Day June 4th, 1300 to 1700

As one of Florida's key maritime-related employers you are invited to attend our military-to-maritime career information day, June 4th in Jacksonville. By exhibiting you can put your company in front of some of the state's most skilled and dedicated employees who are looking to transition from the military into positions in the maritime industry, or related fields such as trade, transportation and logistics. We are hopeful that you can share information with attendees about the skills and qualifications you are looking for to fill positions within your company as well as any advice you might have to help our service men and women transition into these new opportunities.

Please support our veterans and veterans-to-be. Register online or contact us today for more information.
